Dear Sir

The badness of the weather prevents being the pleasure of waiting upon you.

I wish titles to be made from M^r. James Habersham to yourself if agreeable - Philip Livingston of New York and Robert Barnwell of South Carolina for in trust for M^{rs}. Susannah Kean & her heirs by John Kean for both the tracts of land & done in such manner as to absolutely secure the property to them against all persons whatsoever - the dates can be left blank - I wish them to be ready for execution on thursday - as I must set off on fry day -

Can you furnish me with a continental depreciation table enacted by your State & also the exact amount of the Judgement obtained by Bourguines executors & the date -

Prays receipts appear to me a sufficient discharge for the amount of them - his last account misstates the amount due - we must be careful to meet his demand with the proper discounts - move on this subject when I see you -

With much respect

I am
Yr. Serv.
